Legislation and Health & Safety Requirements

1. The vehicles must comply with the Road Traffic Act 1984 and the Highway Code. 2. A certificate of insurance and suitable indemnity must be in force covering the use of the vehicle. 3. Exhibitors participate in the Show at their own risk as LECCA cannot be held liable for any loss, damage or accident, however caused. 4. It is a condition of entry into any exhibition organised by the LECCA that every exhibitor, participator, contractor, sub-contractor, supplier and their agents comply with the Health and Safety at Work etc Act 1974, and all other legislation, rules and regulations associated with the venue. 5. The exhibitors/participators accept that it is their legal and moral duty to ensure that their own and others health and safety is not endangered by their action or inaction throughout the build-up, event day(s) and break down periods. 6. The exhibitors/participators must ensure that all those volunteering or employed by them are provided with suitable information, instruction and training to ensure the safety of themselves and others. 7. We agree to liaise with the LECCA on all matters regarding health and safety prior to and during the event where necessary to ensure the health and safety of all parties who may be affected by our action/inaction. 8. We recognise that the LECCA reserves the right to issue a suspended action notice for contravention of the health and safety rules of the LECCA and/or relevant statutory provisions and may, given the circumstances, prohibit an exhibit or activity where the agents of the LECCA consider that the health and safety or welfare of personnel or public is at risk.
